

APC Workshop - How to Write a Critical Analysis

Abingdon Guildhall

Tuesday, 18 May 2010, 2-00pm to 5-00pm

This half-day workshop is aimed at APC candidates who are about to embark on writing their critical analysis and preparing for their final assessment in Autumn 2010; it will also be of interest to those who prefer to get a head start for their final assessment in Spring 2011.

The workshop will explain the RICS guidelines, offer advice on the choice of topic, how to plan and structure the report, and how to present the report at final assessment. The workshop is aimed at all APC candidates for all of the APC pathways, to include building surveying, commercial property practice, planning and development, project management, residential survey and valuation, rural and quantity surveying.

The session will be highly participative, and attendees are encouraged to discuss their own issues and concerns relating to the preparation of their critical analysis. The lecturer for this workshop is Vivienne Spurge FRICS of APC Success.

The cost including handouts and refreshments is:

£50.00 (incl. VAT) for 3CPD members

£65.00 (incl. VAT) for non-members.

To attend, please complete and return the form below with to Guy Pullen.

If you require an invoice, wish to pay by BACS, or would like to join 3CPD to take advantage of the discounted rate, please contact Guy for details.

Terms and conditions: Once a place has been booked and an invoice has been raised, this is a firm booking and our cancellation conditions apply. Up to one month prior to the event, a cancellation fee of £23.50 (incl. VAT) will apply; after that, no refund will be made for a cancellation, but another delegate may be substituted.
